TAISHAN AGED LIMESTONE

Taishan Aged is a varied, grey limestone with an abundance of small spherical fossils ooids which gives the stone a unique pattern. The ageing process produces a smooth surface with a subtly worn edge. It has good slip resistance and is easy to maintain.

Taishan is a hard wearing and compact limestone which is suitable for use in commercial and residential projects. With low porosity and good frost resistance, Taishan Aged can be used to create a seamless transition when used inside and out, and is suitable for use with under floor heating. Swimming pool copings, step treads and block steps are also available.

Taishan is quarried in Northern China, where local stone has been used in construction of defences and temples for millennia. The Mount Tai (Taishan) area is a UNESCO World Heritage site.
